Loews Ventana Canyon Resort Destination Services team prides itself on making sure this story has a happy ending giving your meeting a positive start.

Through Destination Services by Loews, transportation to Loews Ventana Canyon Resort from the Tucson International Airport is scheduled according to a client provided manifest, matching vehicles with expected arrival patterns. Experienced airport staff will meet and greet your participants, arrange for their skycap services and have them escorted to an assigned vehicle.

Departures to the Tucson International Airport from Loews Ventana Canyon are scheduled in the same manner. Resort staff checks guests on to their proper vehicle and handle any last-minute requests or changes. Guests will depart approximately two hours prior to their scheduled flight time.
